

WHAT'S IN YOUR POCKET?

Keys? Wallet? Small change? How about putting something in your pocket that can change someone's whole life?

Way back in 1893, a teenage girl named Helen Cadbury had an idea. Excited about sharing Jesus with others, Helen and her friends sewed pockets on their dresses to hold small Gospels so they would always be conveniently at hand, ready to share with people they met.

Pledging to read, carry and share the Word of God, these enthusiastic teens called their group The Pocket Testament League.

Today, members of the League — over 250,000 and growing daily — carry on that incredible tradition. Almost a million free Gospels are shared annually through people like you, simply giving someone a free gift, knowing that it could lead others to the greatest gift of all: eternal life through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Membership in the League is free. Learn more about the League and how you can be part of this incredible movement of God as we present the Read, Carry, Share® challenge.
