

GREATER MIDDLE EAST

GOAL: INVITE 500k MORE PEOPLE TO MEET JESUS IN THE GREATER MIDDLE EAST IN 2026.

Across the Greater Middle East, the name of Jesus is being shared with boldness and love, even in regions where faith in Him can bring personal risk. Many nations in this part of the world remain shaped by severe and restrictive cultural and religious traditions. Yet the light of the Gospel continues to shine through hearts that are open and ready to receive God's truth.

For believers in repressive countries such as Pakistan and Afghanistan, following Jesus often means walking a path of great courage. And God is moving in powerful ways through His people. They are faithfully sharing the Gospel. From personal evangelism to city-wide rallies, to organizing churches, Christians are living out the Great Commission with unwavering faith. As a result, many in those countries are coming to know Jesus as Savior.

Since 2019,
6 million in the Greater Middle East
have been invited to meet Jesus.

The League's partners are leading with compassion and creativity. In Pakistan, where refugees continue to arrive from neighboring regions, believers are reaching both Muslims and religious leaders with the Word of God. Remarkably, even Imams are reading the Gospel of John in their mosques, seeking to understand the message of hope and peace it brings.

Since 2019, The Pocket Testament League and its partners have invited 6 million people across the Greater Middle East to meet Jesus. Working faithfully and often quietly, they have organized networks of believers who courageously proclaim the Gospel, trusting God for protection and fruit.

Gospels of John are available in Arabic, Farsi, and Pakistani Urdu, ensuring that people across this region can encounter God's Word in their own language. These dedicated partners continue to empower pastors, churches, and ministries to share the Gospel selflessly, even amid persecution.

Be a part of inviting the Greater Middle East to meet Jesus.

In the next three years, The League seeks to invite 100 million people across the world with the Gospel of John, the Living Word of God. You can help invite 500,000 people next year as we work together to reach the Greater Middle East. God's Word is transforming lives through the obedience and faith of believers, proving that no boundary, culture, or government can stop the power of His love.

The Pocket Testament League has been mobilizing and equipping Christians to Read, Carry, and Share® the Word of God since 1893. Through our network of individual Members and Member Partners, we are able to direct funding to resources for Members to share Gospels of John in the field.

A gift of $50,000 moves your ministry closer to inviting 500,000 people to meet Jesus in the Greater Middle East.
